

IISR Girmunda

Characteristics and Special Features:

A medium maturity group.
Piperine 2.2%,
Oleoresin 9.65%,
Essential oil 3.4%
Dry recovery 32.0%
Suited to high altitude (3000 ft msl) and plains.

Suitable Growing Region and Season:

Suited to all pepper growing tracts including coffee and tea plantations of higher elevation.

IISR Shakthi

Characteristics and Special Features:

Phyophthora tolerant line for managing foot rot disease.
Piperine 3.3%.
Oleoresin 10.2%
Essential oil 3.7%
Driage 43.0%.

Suitable Growing Region and Season:

Recommended for all black pepper growing tracts.
Suitable for planting in disease prone areas.

IISR Malabar Excel

Characteristics and Special Features:

High quality variety
Oleoresin content 11.7%
Piperine 2.4%
Essential oil 2.8%
Dry recovery 32.3%
High yielding and good quality.

Suitable Growing Region and Season:

Recommended for all pepper growing tracts including coffee & tea plantation of higher elevation.

IISR Thevam

Characteristics and Special Features:

Stable yielding.
Grow vigorously
Field tolerant to Phytophthora.
Medium maturity.
Piperine 1.6%
Oleoresin 8.15%
Essential oil 3.1%
Dry recovery 32.5%

Suitable Growing Region and Season:

Suitable for high altitude areas of South India up to 3000 ft MSL in coffee and tea estates and plains.