

Ajmer Dill 1

Characteristics and Special Features:

It is suitable for export as seeds are dillapiole less and contain about 3.5% essential oil.
Average seed yield is 14.7 q/ha under irrigated conditions
It is a European type dill variety.
The average plant height is 134 cm.
The leaves are dark green in colour with good content of herbal constituents.
It takes about 142 days to reach maturity.

Suitable Growing Region and Season:

Suitable for cultivation both under irrigated and rainfed conditions.

Ajmer Dill 2

Characteristics and Special Features:

The seed contain about 3.2% essential oil.
Seed yield is 14.6 q/ ha under irrigated and 5.8 q/ ha under rainfed conditions.
The average plant height is 90 cm.
It takes about 135 days to reach maturity.
The seeds are bold, compact and dark brown in colour, which require pressure to split.

Suitable Growing Region and Season:

Suitable for cultivation both under irrigated and rainfed conditions during Rabi season.